

Contract Info Card # 12-1

June 2007

2-Hour Reserve Call Out-Section 9.E... Reserve Flight Attendants will be given a 2-hour call out period prior to the departure time of the flight they've been assigned. Additionally, once Crew Scheduling has paged or left a telephone message for a Reserve flight attendant on call, they will have fifteen (:15) minutes to respond. These fifteen minutes will be deducted from the 2-hour call out time.

Line Bidding-Section 8.A.1...Each month, schedules for the following month will be posted and available for bid from 15th to the 20th, or the 16th until the 21st. The bidding process opens at 12:00 Noon CT and closes at 12:00 Noon CT, 5 days later. The company can adjust the timeline due to unforeseen circumstances and if this happens, the company will notify the Flight Attendants ASAP. Flight Attendants can bid all lines published in the bid sheet and these lines will be awarded to qualified flight attendants in seniority order. If you fail to bid or do not bid enough lines, you will be assigned the lowest un-bid numerical line of time, in order of seniority.

Open Time- Blocking-Section 8.E.6 ... The company will notify Flight Attendants of their intent to block OT as far in advance as possible, prior to the opening of the 72hr window. When the Company blocks OT during the 72 hr window, all requests submitted during the 72 hr window will still be processed. After the 72 hr. window closes, OT will then be blocked. The Company will notify Flight Attendants when OT is blocked and unblocked via company E-mail (HI6) and these HI6 messages will be time stamped. If a date that had been previously blocked, subsequently becomes unblocked, the Company will begin to process all requests to pick up OT that had been submitted and on file by submission date.

Permanent Vacancies-Section 15.A.2...In the event a permanent vacancy occurs, the Company will post the vacancy for a minimum for 14 calendar days on company E-mail (HI6) and AVARS. Permanent vacancy(s) bid will be reviewed and awarded in seniority order, by the 5th of the month two (2) months prior to the effective month of the bid.
